THE WORLD CAN BE A SCARY PLACE

Managing Noise Phobias in Dogs

Presented by

Gary Landsberg, DVM DACVB DECVBM-CA

Presentation topics

- Fears and phobias affect a dog's quality of life and welfare while posing a serious concern for family members.
- Therapeutic options should include both environmental management to minimize or mute exposure to the stimuli and behavior modification using desensitization and counterconditioning.
- Behavioral techniques should be complemented with therapies or natural products to reduce the pet's stress and improve the outcome of behavioral modification.
